Notice of Privacy Practices

Our “Notice of Privacy Practices” policy, available at the reception desk and also online at our website, provides detailed information about how we may use and disclose protected health information about you. The details of this policy are in full compliance with all provisions, including those most recently updated, of the Health Insurance Portability and Accountability Act passed in 1996 (HIPPA). Should this happen, we will display, and make available, the new policy and its perspective date of implementation. You have the right to request restrictions on how your protected health information may be used or disclosed for treatment, payment or health care operations. We are not required to agree with your restrictions; however, if we do, we are bound by our agreement with you.
